Living Catholic in the 808 A Month of Feasts

Kristina M. DeNeve

Eastertime is over, yet the Church offers us another whole month of major celebrations. I think in part the Church offers these “post-Easter” feasts to try to help us connect the dots. Our faith is meant to be one whole picture, a seamless garment. Our faith does not end with the Resurrection or even with Pentecost. Rather, they point us towards the rest of our lives. And today we celebrate that which especially helps us to follow Jesus every day we live.

This is why the Body and Blood of Jesus is so important for Catholics. We are “saved” when we are baptized. We become God’s children. But, how do we live that out every single day when we are still burdened by life’s difficulties and by our own weaknesses?

Through the Eucharist.

Our only real chance of actually following Jesus, of loving enemies, of turning away from our tendency towards sin, is through the Eucharist. Every day, Jesus becomes nourishment for us, for our very souls. Jesus draws us close by letting us consume him. We consume him and then, ironically, we become more “Him” through this consumption.
